

Overview

In 2017-18 the FACS cluster will spend $7 BILLION supporting people with disability, vulnerable children, young people and families to live a better life. This is an increase of $459 million (or 7.1%) on the 2016-17 revised budget.

2017-18 Budget Highlights

$1.9 billion

ON CHILD PROTECTION AND OUT-OF-HOME CARE SERVICES.

$2 billion

ON ACCOMMODATION AND OTHER SUPPORTS FOR PEOPLE with disability to assist them to live with dignity in their communities.

$1.1 billion

ON SOCIAL HOUSING SERVICES AND HOMELESSNESS ASSISTANCE.

$1.4 billion

ON SUPPORTING PEOPLE WITH DISABILITY to participate socially and economically in their community.

The FACS cluster also leads whole-of-government policy for youth, ageing, multiculturalism, women, and the prevention of domestic violence and sexual assault. The cluster directly supports people across NSW through delivery of its own services and commissioning non-government organisations to deliver specialist support services.

FACS is contributing to the Premier's and State Priorities

PROTECTING OUR KIDS

Decrease the percentage of children and young people re-reported at risk of significant harm by 15%.

REDUCING YOUTH HOMELESSNESS

Increase the proportion of young people who successfully move from specialist homelessness services to long-term accommodation by 10%.

REDUCING DV RE-OFFENDING

Reduce the proportion of domestic violence perpetrators re-offending within 12 months by 5%.

CREATING SUSTAINABLE SOCIAL HOUSING

Increase the number of households successfully transitioning out of social housing by 5% over three years.

TRANSITIONING TO THE NATIONAL DISABILITY INSURANCE SCHEME.